

Nurse Practitioner Licensing - Idaho

Nurse Practitioners (Board of Nursing):

- Fees:
 - Initial application: $118.25 + $28.25 for fingerprint processing fee + $30.00 record verification
 - Renewal application: $90.00
- Term: Two years. Expires August 31st on odd years
- Other notes:
 - Idaho is part of the Nurse Licensure Compact (<https://www.ncsbn.org/nurse-licensure-compact.htm>)
 - The Board of Nursing is also currently issuing 90-day temporary licenses in response to COVID-19. You can request that when you apply for your permanent license, which will expedite licensure for you.

How To Start Your Application

- Follow this link:
 - <https://ibn.boardsofnursing.org/ibn>
- Create your account if you don't have one already. This will require your SSN but can be done in under two minutes.
- Once you are logged into your portal, click the grey "Apply for License" button in the upper right-hand corner. Select the appropriate licensure option for yourself.
 - If you are applying for an APRN license, you must first apply for your RN license. You can do these at the same time but start your RN application first.
 - If you are applying for endorsement of another state's license you currently carry, select the option titled "LPN Endorsement Application".

Application Requirements

- Complete online licensure fee
- Pay the fees up-front
- Official Transcripts
- Fingerprint Card
 - You can check online for local fingerprinting services in your area. If you live in a very rural area, the nearest police department should be able to help you.
